

How do we live these values

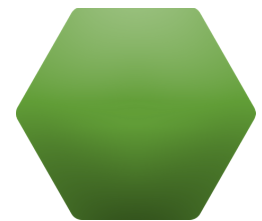

Going one step beyond

Listen to individuals to connect with their challenge

Having an open space to ask questions, take initiative and the responsibility to reflect on the experience

Take responsibility for our impacts on everyone and put equality at the core of each unique relationship

Pause to speak truthfully and understand our own capability to be impartial